Please note your conflicts on the audition sheet – Failure to disclose conflicts may result in loss of your role to another actor/actress

The following dates have been tentatively reserved for rehearsals (due to Charlotte's Web schedule we have limited access to the theatre prior to July 21st)

Given the physical nature of this production, there will be a two week period after initial blocking to get off-book so that rehearsals will be productive beginning August 19th. By then we should have the majority of the set and props in place, so we don't want to be encumbered by the books!

Please note – we will not rehearse all of these nights – please mark conflicts on calendar
