Playbill Advertising

Playbills are given to each theatre patron. They are unique to each production and filled with information about the show and cast. Playbills are often saved as mementos. If you aren't familiar with us here are a few things that makes us a community treasure:

- DCP's 190-seat theatre presents (6) Main Stage and (3) Family Theatre productions annually.
- DCP is a publicly supported non-profit 501(c)(3) theatre that been in your neighborhood since 1952.
- The success of our volunteer organization truly depends on the appreciation and generosity of community members and business.
- The spark that galvanized a local group of creative and inspired individuals is the torch that still guides and motivates DCP Theater today.
- We are proud of our roots but have an ambitious vision for our future. We strive to be a community haven for personal development of young and old alike as we provide the opportunity for artistic expression that can transform an individual as well as a whole community.

With your help, we can continue to bring quality live theatre, art and creativity into your neighborhood,
